
Dose Drawing Syringe Shield for PET

The needle end of the syringe shield has a tungsten disc that protects the user's hands during the dose drawing procedure. There are 2 pins in the end disc that secure the shield to the drawing station. This allows single handed dose removal from the drawing station. The syringe shield has a tungsten thickness of .315"

PTI-511

511 Dose Drawing Syringe Shield for PET